EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Akihiro Yamazaki (46,155) on August 5, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

Please cancel claims 19-39.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for allowance of claims 1-17 is the inclusion of a first guide member and a second guide member positioned such that a first restriction point is positioned at an opposite side to an image carrier with respect to a reference line connecting a second restriction point and an upstream end of the nip in the direction of conveyance. This is found in all of claims 1-17, but not disclosed nor suggested by the prior art of record.

The primary reason for allowance of claim 18 is the inclusion of a method of conveying a recording medium by conveying the medium such that a most downstream point of a first restricting portion, which restricts an image transfer side of the recording medium, other than opposite ends in a direction of conveyance is positioned at an opposite side of the image carrier with respect to a reference line connecting a most downstream point of a second restricting portion, which restricts the other side of the recording medium, other than opposite ends in the direction of conveyance with an upstream end of the nip in the direction of conveyance. This is found in all of claim 18, but not disclosed nor suggested by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
